

Azeem Haq
Producer
Z103.5 (Evanov Radio Group)

Azeem graduated from Seneca College in Radio Broadcasting- honours. As the production manager for the college radio station, he quickly started his career as an intern for Z103.5's morning show, assisting the announcers and production. Azeem is now an esteemed producer for Z103.5, one of the biggest CHR radio stations in Canada. His duties include production for the station's imaging, promos and commercials. His work also includes production for sister stations 88.5 The Jewel (Toronto), 98.5 The Jewel (Ottawa), Z103.5 (Halifax), AM 530 (Toronto) - under the Evanov Radio Group umbrella.

If this was not enough for a full days work, Azeem's passion for the past 10 years is evident in his music production, and commitment to studio recording and mixing whereby he creates his vision through his personal production facility. This dedication has lead him to become a musician/producer for the urban group E.O.S., who have received radio rotation and recognition for their music across the world.

Azeem Haq encourages aspiring artists to learn the art of production and to build on their creative landscape.
