

Chris Dunlop
Assistant News Director
CKDO

Radio is my second career. I've been on-air for 5 years, after attending the National Institute of Broadcasting in Toronto - part time while still working full-time. I began my radio career doing weekend news, at Y92 (Chum) in Lindsay. In October 2005, I landed a full-time job here at Durham Radio Inc. doing afternoon news on CKDO. Since then I've worked my way up to Assistant News Director and am now handling all newsroom operations while the News Director is on maternity leave.
